LightShow West Opens 2019 Conference Registration
Returns to Los Angeles Convention Center
September 25-26

Atlanta - LightShow West (LSW) today announced that it has opened registration for its 2019 event to be staged at the Los Angeles Convention Center. The event will be held Wednesday and Thursday, September 25-26, 2019.

Attendees can take advantage of two days of complimentary lighting education and an exhibit hall showcase that features over 250 companies displaying the latest commercial lighting products and technology.

LightShow West, which was founded in 2003, is the only commercial and architectural trade show and conference uniquely created for West Coast architects, lighting designers, engineers, specifiers, energy consultants, IT directors and other lighting professionals.

Attendees can visit our website, www.lightshowwest.com, for complete conference and show information as well as registering for education sessions and the exhibit hall.

Companies interested in reserving exhibit space can contact Jeanne Phillips at (770) 817-5903, or email her at Jeanne@exponation.net.
